Suspension of Driver Licence for Non-Payment of Fines (Fines Act, 1996)

Revenue NSW directed Transport for NSW to suspend your driver licence and not to conduct certain driver licence and vehicle registration business with you because you did not pay outstanding fines as requested by Revenue NSW detailed on Overdue Fine (No.: 446934574) sent to you. Details of business restrictions are listed overleaf. Your driver's licence has been suspended to it's expiry date.

Revenue NSW will not direct Transport for NSW lift the suspension and reinstate your licence or conduct business with you until full payment of the amount shown at the bottom of this letter, which now includes a further enforcement fee, is made to Revenue NSW. Should Revenue NSW be advised of any additional fines before payment is made, they must also be paid before Transport for NSW will be directed to reinstate your licence. If payment of the outstanding amount is not made within six months, Revenue NSW may direct Transport for NSW to cancel your licence. Please be aware that heavy penalties, including a gaol sentence and a lengthy period of disqualification, apply if you are convicted of "Drive After Licence Suspended".

Please do not contact Transport for NSW in relation to this matter as it is unable to assist you. All enquiries should be directed to Revenue NSW on 1300 001 525 or online at www.revenue.nsw.gov.au

IMPORTANT NOTE: Payment of the outstanding amount will not automatically reinstate your licence and will not allow you to commence driving a motor vehicle. Revenue NSW will direct Transport for NSW to lift the suspension of your licence after the payment has been processed and Transport for NSW will immediately notify you in writing.

Mr. Richard McLean
Email: Bazdod@icloud.com

Dear Mr. McLean

I refer to your complaint against police received at the Internal Investigation Section of the South Australia Police (SAPOL) on 18 June 2025. It has been entered onto the complaints management system and assigned registration number C2025-2272. I have reviewed your complaint and carried out an assessment pursuant to the Police Complaints and Discipline Act 2016 (the Act).

My review revealed the conduct of the police was appropriate in the circumstances, and that they have taken appropriate action in dealings with you. No breach of the SA Police Code of Conduct was identified.

The initial assessment of your complaint has now been completed. Having regard to all the circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion further investigation is unnecessary, as I do not consider there to be any reasonable prospect that an investigation would establish an officer has breached SAPOL's Code of Conduct. For that reason, pursuant to section 15(d) of the Act, I will not be taking further action.

I shall now close the complaint file.

Yours sincerely

Dear Dr McLean

Thank you for your email of 5 July 2023 to the Prime Minister, the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, regarding your interactions with several Australian Government agencies, including the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO). Your correspondence has been referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, as the matters you raise fall within his portfolio responsibilities. The Attorney-General has requested that the Attorney-General's Department respond to you on his behalf. I apologise for the delay in response.

It appears from your correspondence that you are concerned about the conduct of ASIO. You may wish to refer the details of your concern to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security (IGIS). The IGIS is responsible for reviewing the activities of the Australian intelligence agencies under its jurisdiction to ensure that the agencies act legally and with propriety, comply with ministerial guidelines and directives, and respect human rights. Information about making a complaint can be found at www.igis.gov.au/complaints

You have also mentioned concerns about several Commonwealth Government agencies. You may wish to refer the details of those concerns to the Commonwealth Ombudsman (Ombudsman). The Ombudsman is an independent statutory officer to whom Parliament has given a range of functions including investigation of Commonwealth administrative action. If you wish to lodge a complaint about an agency's conduct, a form is available at www.ombudsman.gov.au. A complaint can also be made by calling 1300 362 072.

Thank you again for bringing your concerns to the Government's attention. I trust this information is of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely
